

*“Unsung heroes: Let’s cherish the work they do.”
-Florence Lumala*

In the developing countries of Africa,
grandmothers are the unsung heroes of our time.

These incredibly brave women bury their own children and become parents again,
calling on astonishing reserves of love
and emotional resilience.

They do so with almost no support.

Without them, where would all the orphans go?

GRANDMOTHERS BEYOND BORDERS

For more information please contact:

Amy Peterson
414.750.1005 ~ peterona@archmil.org

Yvonne Ssempijja
414.940.2991 ~ yssempijja@sbcglobal.net

Please visit our website
www.grandmothersbeyond.com

Photography by Sarah Walls

GRANDMOTHERS BEYOND BORDERS

Reaching through the distance...
touching each others’ lives.

In a world community,
we cannot leave women alone
to carry burdens of this magnitude...

